Meet Kristin, employee #1. □

Her first day at stylist training starts with a car that shows up on its own. No keys. No driver. Just her fleet, taking her where she's going.

Swipe → 1. Her ride is here. 2. Her seat. 3. Girls' night. Her and 15 friends. The van drives. Everyone gets home. 4. Me, late at night, just wanting something to eat. Not a DUI. I didn't know I needed her robotaxi. 5. The first seat is hers.

Everyone should dare to chase the American dream. This is what it looks like when it pulls up to the curb.
